

Patricia R. Koehler

Paralegal

About Patricia

Patty began her legal career with RCO Law as an administrative assistant in 2021. She quickly realized that she enjoys the legal profession and building relationships with clients. She made the decision to advance her career through education and earned a paralegal certificate in July 2024.

As a paralegal in our Findlay office, Patty supports attorneys in the areas of Business and Corporate and Estate Planning and Wealth Preservation. She is especially dedicated to guiding clients through the probate administration process with attention to detail providing invaluable support and peace of mind.

Education

Paralegal Certificate Course, Ohio University, 2024
