

Peter N. Lavalette

Managing Partner

About Peter

Pete engages in a broad civil litigation practice, ranging from trade secret/unfair competition issues to defense of hospitals and health care professionals in professional liability claims. Pete also represents manufacturers in medical and automotive product liability claims and has handled employee benefit and ERISA litigation. He represents insurers in first-party claims and complex coverage matters, and has experience in class action litigation matters. He practices in both state and federal courts in the region, often serving as local counsel. He serves as the Firm's managing partner.

Following college, Pete served five years active duty in the U.S. Coast Guard, deployed aboard the cutter Morgenthau in the Pacific, and later in a procurement position in Washington, DC. He served as editor in chief of The University of Toledo Law Review while in law school, and is proud to have practiced with RCO Law since 1994.
